

What others say...

"The EEI course really helps confirm, channel, refine, and fan into flame a young evangelist's passion for proclaiming the good news of Jesus by providing Biblical and practical evangelism training within a group of people who share the same passion."

James Richards, Leader/Evangelist,
Hill City Church, Pontnewynydd

"Never has there been a time when young evangelists are needed to boldly proclaim the Gospel in the 21st century. The EEI will put young evangelists on the starting blocks to make them become world class evangelists in record time and empower and equip them by learning from the masters."

Pamela Stewart, Lead evangelist, The Well Church
Campus, Ansdell

"EEI helped me to confirm and clarify my calling as an evangelist; for the first time in my life I was surrounded by other young people (and mentors) who shared the same specific vocation; I received high level teaching and resources that helped me sharpen not only my skills as evangelist, but also my character. Through EEI God made my heart burn even more for the proclamation of the Gospel."

Helder Favarin, Pastor C29, Director K180Global, Granada, Spain

"It confirms my own conviction that bold preaching of the gospel is the key to seeing the nation changed. Any programme like this that encourages and equips young evangelists to preach the message has to be encouraged."

Andy Hawthorne, Chief Executive of The Message

"If you have a glow in your heart for evangelism why not join the EEI course? The excellent input, mentoring and fellow students will soon fan into flame the wonderful gift that lies inside of you."

EEI EMERGING EVANGELISTS' INSTITUTE

A national interactive training initiative to help equip those whom God has called to proclamation evangelism. The EEI training in the UK has birthed similar initiatives elsewhere. Presently training is available in Iceland, Italy, Germany, Russia and Spain.

What is EEI?

The EEI is an interactive training initiative, designed to help train and equip evangelists early in their call to a ministry of proclamation evangelism.

Whilst there are many areas of gifting and ability that are an effective part of the task of sharing the Good News of Jesus, the EEI is designed specifically to develop and equip those called to proclamation evangelism, the speaking and preaching of the gospel whether from the platform, open air, in schools, after dinner events etc.

The training consists of four separate residential weekends of training, together with additional days, mentoring, and opportunities to participate in evangelistic initiatives.

Who is it for?

Those participating in EEI do so by invitation of the leadership team following completion of an application form. Each participant is expected to be committed to completing all four modules, ideally within the two-year period.

Applicants should be those who recognise the call of God to the ministry of proclamation evangelism, who are in the early stages of their call, and who are already exercising some form of evangelistic ministry.

How much does it cost?

Each module costs £175 and this includes accommodation, meals and all training materials.

What will I learn?

The modules

Calling: Being set apart for the task - identifying the gift and call of the evangelist

Culture: How to effectively engage culture with the gospel

Communication: How to articulate and communicate the message

Church: The relationship, and responsibility, of the evangelist to the church

And he [Jesus] said to them,
“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

Matthew 4:19 [ESV]
